

On-site in EMEA

Courses on demand

At least as important as our scheduled courses are our customized courses. As we noticed that a growing number of companies prefers on demand training, U2U offers a simple and budget friendly formula for groups. We can organize any of our courses on-demand, even on-site and tailor the course content to your needs.

U2U takes pride in its flexibility:

What you want: customization

The content of the courses can be fully adjusted to your particular needs. To use your time optimally and to make the most of the course, you can choose which topics you want to integrate in the course. The content of the course will be drawn up beforehand in close cooperation with you.

Where you want: at U2U or on-site

We do not only teach you what you want, but even where you want. Our classrooms in Brussels are at your disposal, but we can also organize courses on-site. We offer courses in Dutch and English and organize those courses on demand at our training center or even on-site throughout whole Europe, Middle East and Africa. It is easy for us to install our mobile PC class (portables and beamers) in your office or in a seminar center near you.

For 10 students, group price starts at

6000 € for 5 days

We offer you a special on-site package that includes the organization of a 5-day course at your site and includes all the courseware for 10 participants. The group price of the package starts at 6000 €. Please contact us for an exact cost calculation.

What is included in our on-site price?

- The price includes the organization of 5 training days on-site in your classroom.
- The number of students that participate to the course is NOT limited, but all participants must belong to the same company.
- All courseware for 10 participants is included: course book or binder with printout of slides, exercises and hands on labs.
- The course content can be adapted to your needs without extra cost
- Indicative course hours 9:15 – 16:45
